PURCHASE ORDER

KNOW HOW TO CREATE NEW PURCHASE ORDER

a. Click the CREATE button to create new purchase order. Upon creating new purchase order transaction, it will allow the user to select particular supplier.

- Transaction#: Every transaction has a document # or transaction# for monitoring of the transaction per supplier.
- Vendor/Supplier code: Designated code for supplier encoded from the supplier ledger.
- Vendor/ Supplier name: Supplier name encoded from the supplier ledger.
- Address: Address details encode from the supplier.
- Date and Due: Date and due of the transaction.
- Project and Sub-project: If the transaction is per project and subproject the user will select particular project.
- Warehouse name: Transaction in purchase order must select a particular warehouse.
- Ourref: For references if the user needs to monitor other transaction#
- Yourref: In creating PO the user need to select particular Purchase Requisition (RQ) to be proceed.

- Notes: For other information or remarks.
- Revision: For tracking and manual encode of number on how many times the transaction is revised.

b. Click SAVE to proceed on the transaction.

KNOW HOW TO ADD ITEMS IN PURCHASE ORDER

c. To add items in PO the user can proceed with the following:

I. Purchase Requisition (PR): This will show all the materials created from the PR based from the selected document number in the header.

II. Add Item: This allow the user to manually select an item to be transacted in the PO.

III. Quick Add: This allows the user to input manually the item using itemcode or barcode.

d. Click SAVE to save the items and to proceed.

e. Click DELETE to delete item that is not included in the transaction as long as the transaction is not yet posted and served.

KNOW HOW TO USE THE FUNCTION BUTTONS

- New: It will allow to create new transaction.
- Delete: It will allow to delete created transaction that doesn't have yet previous transaction.
- Print: It will allow to print the details of the selected transaction.
- Post / Unpost: It allow to post the transaction if it is finalized and to unpost if there is modification with the transaction.
- Lock: It allow to lock the transaction to avoid necessary modification and if the transaction is for finalization.
- Logs: It allow to view all the activity done with the transaction.
- Edit: It will allow to modify the transaction.